Tuesday morning Mr. Hess and his sister Mary, Mrs. Lewis, of Philadelphia, left Hancock for Clinton to attend the funeral.

Any of his friends that would like to write him, should address: CLEM C. MELLOTT, Co. D. 145 h Inf., A. P. O. 763, Am. E. F., via New York.

Soldier's Letter.

The following letter was written by Walter Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Cooper, of Ayr township to Rev. Mr. Jacobs, of McConnellsburg.

On Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force August 25, 1918.

DEAR PASTOR:—
I will write you a few lines this Sabbath morning. It has been nearly two weeks since I landed in France. I have been getting along fine since I was called to the colors and I do not mind it for I know that I am doing my duty and helping to protect those at home from those nations that are doing their best to make this world a place unfit to live in and only by all people serving God as we are taught to do so will it be made a place where all shall be at peace with one another and I trust and pray that the time is not far distant.

Dear Pastor, I have learned so much since I left home and how I long to be back in the State and in the Sabbath School again to tell all of those young men and women who have been leading a wild and ungodly life something that would completely change their lives if they were once called to the colors, and cross the sea as I have done, leaving behind your parents, friends and loved ones and your home which was dear to all. You all at home cannot fully realize what it really does mean to have to go leaving all behind and giving our lives for the defence of our country and loved ones at home.

While crossing the sea at first there was some young men who I knew well and would swear at everything and do anything but the right. On the first Sabbath out we had a song and prayer service and many young men kept no account of it they went on in their old reckless way but by the time that another week rolled away and another Sabbath came and song and prayer service was announced almost every young man was ready to respond to the call. Much personal work was done and many conversions were made. At the close of the service the question was asked if there one man present that can say that there has not been changed from what they were at home and there was not one that could answer. I wish I could speak to all young men before called to the colors and implore and plead with them to change or put away their wrong doings before leaving their home. I often think when the dawn of Sabbath day breaks that if I could only be back with friends in the Cove. And hope the time will soon be that I may once more take my place among them, I often think of the words of that hymn, "Though sundered far, by faith we meet, around one common mercy seat." With best wishes to all I will close trusting that the good work will be carried on. Yours Ever at comand.

WALTER S. COOPER,
1 Tr. Inf. Reg. 4 Co.

These will be meetings held at Demascus church. Thompson township on Saturday October 5th at 8 o'clock P. M. and in the church at Needmore at 7 P. M. of the same day, in the interests of the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign.

An overseas speaker will address these meetings if it is possible to secure one; if not, there will be plenty of other good speakers on hand.

"Liberty Sing" will be a prominent feature at these meetings with instrumental accompaniment. Everybody who is interested in the boys "over there" will come out and help to put the finish to Kaiser Bill.

For Better Fire Protection.

If the McConnellsburg Water Company would furnish an adequate supply of water and keep the fire plugs in order, no town in the State would have better fire protection as far as water is concerned. We have sufficient pressure, when everything is working right, to throw a stream of water from the plugs to the top of the highest building in town and knock any ordinary fire silly before its heyday, but on account of the limited supply of water and the bad condition of the plugs, the fire underwriters declared a year ago, that McConnellsburg did not have fire protection and the insurance rates were practically doubled.

At a meeting of the Council a few evenings ago, steps were taken looking to the organization of a Fire Company. The necessity of this was well demonstrated at the recent fire, when there was no one to direct the movements of the workers. In order to make a start, the Council appointed W. H. Nesbit, fire chief, and Chris Shimer, assistant fire chief, with the following persons to cooperate in the forming of a Company, namely, J. W. Mellott, Harry Ott, Jack Snyder, Geo. W. Reinsner, Walter Reid Sloan, B. Frank Henry, L. W. Seylar, Chas. R. Steach, R. M. Shimer, B. C. Lamberson, Michael Black, Ellis Lynch, Mack Helman and Daniel Clevenger.

The Council assures the Committee that it will back any reasonable request for material and appliances for successfully fighting fires that may occur.

Pounded a Preacher.

Just to show the standing of some preachers in a community, certain citizens of Needmore and vicinity holdly assembled at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Z. J. Powers a few evenings ago, and gave them a good pounding. We say good, advisedly, for every pound they gave was good. The names of the persons participating are Rev. and Mrs. Powers, and son Ersie; Mrs. Hannah Powers, Ireda, Mabel and Job Garland; Mrs. Levi Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Truax, George Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Mellott, Anna Clark, Ada Dodson, Mrs. Lewis Clark, Mrs. Martha Peck, Frances Barber, Marshall Layton, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Sipes, Howard Sipes, Robert Engle, Kermit Bard, Mrs. Mary E. Garland, Mrs. Maggie Bard, Mrs. J. A. A. Truax, Mrs. Claude Mellott, Florence Truax, Gladys Sipes, Viola Kershner, Laura Keefer, Emma Eller, Madeline Truax, Ruth Garland, Mrs. Harry Peck, Penk, Edith and Florence Peck; Catherine Dixon, Wm. Evans, Fred Dixon, Wayne Mellott, Leonard McKee, Chas. Sipes, Duffy Mellott, Gayle Kershner, Harvey Hill, David Hann, Russell and Samuel Mellott, Flora Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon O'Rourke and daughter Beulah, Brooks Garland and Charlie Peck.

Carson—Garland.

Miss Hazel B. Garland, the daughter of George N. Garland, formerly of this county and now residing at 4880 N. Hermitage Av., Chicago, was united in marriage on Friday the 8th of September to George B. Carson of Ash Fork, Arizona.

The young bride is a very popular lady among the younger set of Chicago's society and it is with great reluctance that we give her up to this new and daring "Romeo."

Mr. Carson is employed in the capacity of Foreman by the "Santa Fe" Company.

The young couple will reside in Ash Fork temporarily, where the bride has been for some time on account of ill health, and will make a trip East in the Spring to visit their parents. Good luck to both of you and we wish to congratulate the new husband on capturing such a promising and being young lady.

HONOR ROLL.

Names of New Subscribers and Others Who Paid Subscription During the Month of September.

The NEWS has "some" Honor Roll this month. The reason it is a little larger than last month, that the Government ordered is that publishers should not send their papers to subscribers after the first of October, who did not appreciate the paper enough to pay for it. The Government took this plan to save paper, and it is going to do the work. While the Honor roll shows a lot of people who made sure of not missing a single copy of the paper, there are a few who will not get a paper this week, just because of carelessness to attend to the matter in time. Of course the back subscription can be paid next week just as well, and we shall be only too glad to continue the very pleasant relations that have existed between the editor and his big army of readers for so many years. If you have not already sent in the money and been "reinstated" do so at once. This is a sacrifice that the Government asks you to make in order to head off those who would take a paper for a lifetime and never think of paying for it.

The editor very much appreciates the promptness with which so many persons have responded, and adapted themselves to these changed conditions.

On account of the mail's bringing in some of the remittances late, it is hardly possible to publish all the names this week; so, if you do not see yours, you may expect to see it next week.
